Telegraph Company Replies to Operators' Charges of Bad Conditions.

walsh explained that one of the Postal relegraphers who testified Wednesday feared that his adverse comment on the company would cost him and his companions who also testified their jobs.

"Not at all as here."

the rules of the company, answered the witnesses.

Shows Men's Earnings.

Powers read a list showing the earnings of the men. He gave the earnings of the men. He gave the earnings of T. I. Varrington, one of the extra list men who testified Wednesday, as 187 the first month. Later, he said. Tarrington, grow so irregular that his earnings decreased to 557 in one month.

The witness stated that he would not hire a member of the Commercial Telegraphers union, but would not disturb a member already holding a job and doing his work right.

They are all right so long as ther don't being the union into the office, he said.

Beffelt Carried By Association.

Deficit Carried By Association.

Asket as to the association of employes, Powers remarked that Tarrington, in the pectod of his allowed indoiones, fell behind in the bill to the association's restaurant and the deficit was carried by the association.

Commissioner Garretson referred to the "evile" of the extra list.

"We can abolish it teday if you want to throw these men out of work; we don't need it." replied Powers.

Short Relief Enobtainable.

A number of operators testified Wednesday that the company was in the habit of hounding its employes to sneed headily that the company was in the habit of hounding its employes to sneed up: that short relief was often unobtainable, and that they, the witnesses, expented to lose their employment as a result of their testimony. Commissioner Walsh said that If an operator lost his job as a result of his testimony he should report at once to the commission.
